Suzanne:

R5 wants to thank you all at IDA for addressing this situation so quickly and removing the DDT product from the marketplace.

This item must still be around — seems it is a popular collector's item from the 1940s and 1950s, offered on eBay — yikes.

David.. here's the report and documentation from our investigator Kent Bloom who took custody of the DDT. It has arrived in Springfield and will be placed in our next disposal program.

Do you need anything else concerning this case from IDA?
